

Your best ever Bath!

No need to wait until bedtime to get into the water - there's lots you can do in a daytime bath. Try some of these ideas, and add to the mix with more of your own...

The bath is a great place to share books too.

You can act out the stories using floaty fish, boats and toys.

Socks are funny in the bath because when they're wet you can blow them up like balloons!

Cut up a carrot & make little fish...

Read a book!

Great (watery) bath books:

Mr Gumpy's Outing - John Burningham

Jack & the Flum Flum Tree - Julia Donaldson/David Roberts

Ten Little Pirates - Mike Brownlow/Simon Rickerty

Tiddler - Julia Donaldson/Axel Scheffler

One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish - Dr Seuss

Where is Little Fish - Lucy Cousins

Cut around the front of an empty plastic milk carton to make a great wee boat.

Got any food colouring? Use a straw or dropper to put one drop at a time into the bath. Watch how it curls & swirls like smoke in the water!
